THE WESTERN ROAD—IS THERE NO WAY OF RELIEF?

The Legislature having passed the resolution authorizing the Governor to appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court in the matter of Clews, Sibley and others against the Western North Carolina Road, and to institute such other suits as he may deem proper to protect the interests of the State in said Road, the next question presents itself, what further steps shall be taken to prevent the sacrifice of the State's property and to realize the best terms that can be made under the present embarrassing situation of affairs?

On Saturday last, before Judge Dick, of the Circuit Court, at Greensboro, Judge Merrimon as counsel for Clews, Sibley and Company, made a motion to cancel the bonds of the Road held by his clients to the amount of five hundred thousand dollars, on the ground that T. R. Caldwell, one of the Trustees, had not signed the same. This is an acknowledgment that the said bonds are illegal and void.

These illegal bonds constitute a portion of the debt claimed by Clews and the other plaintiffs, and on which the decree of foreclosure and sale was made in the Circuit Court, at Asheville in November last.

Gov. Caldwell in his special message on the subject, on the 21st of January, ult., informed the Legislature that he was advised by some of the best legal talent in the State, that the decree had been made "upon a mistaken state of facts, and upon premises, which in the main, were false, and that there were strong badges of fraud connected with the case, which if they had been properly contested, would have defeated a foreclosure of the mortgage, and the sale would have been prevented."

The sale was advertised to take place on the 31st of December last, but on the application of the Governor, the decree was so modified as to extend the time sixty days, to enable the State to take an appeal, if, on an investigation by the Legislature, such action should be deemed necessary.

The resolution adopted yesterday by the Legislature authorized the Governor to take an appeal and to institute such other proceedings to review or impeach the decree as might be necessary for that purpose; and also authorized the Treasurer of the State to give such appeal or prosecution bonds as the Courts might require for the costs of such proceedings.

The debt of the plaintiffs is two hundred and forty thousand dollars, for money lent the Company. To secure the return of the loan of this sum in thirty days, the Company hypothecated bonds to the amount of one million and fifty thousand dollars, with the power to sell the same at public sale for cash if the money borrowed was not returned at the time specified. The Company failed to pay the debt at maturity, the bonds amounting to one million and fifty thousand dollars were sold according to the terms of the contract, and Sibley purchased them at the sale.

The question arises, did the Company have any authority to hypothecate the bonds in the manner above described? Did the Act of the Legislature authorizing a mortgage give the Company the power to mortgage as they have done, and have they not greatly transcended the scope of their authority?

The Governor says the Road with its fixtures, rolling stock and other property cost over six millions of dollars. Of this amount two-thirds were paid by the State and one third by private individuals.

But the Governor does not state farther, which we understand is the fact, that the Radical Legislature of 1868-'69, issued to George W. Swenson, then President of the Western Division, six millions of bonds, making the whole amount appropriated for the Road over twelve millions of dollars. This issue to Swenson seems to have been lost sight of by the officers of the Road and other persons, who have been writing on the subject. It is true that the six millions of bonds issued to Swenson have not been paid, but the credit of the State is to day pledged for the same.

Again, the mortgage bonds held by Sibley, Clews and Company, at whose instance the Road is about to be sold, are not payable until the year 1890, and therefore have seventeen years yet to run before they are due!

In view of these facts, we have advocated an appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States, and when a resolution was introduced in the Legislature authorizing the Treasurer to give the necessary appeal bond we cordially endorsed the proposition.

It is said by those who urge the sale of the Road, that the State is not able to build it, and never will be, and that the only hope of the people of the West to get the Road built is to allow the sale to take place, and the Southern Security Company will at once complete it. It is argued that inasmuch as the Road is indebted several hundred thousand dollars in addition to the debt of Clews and company, it must be sold sooner or later, and that it is best to sell now, in order that work on the Road be commenced without delay. If these facts be true, we still think that a Railroad for which the State and individuals have subscribed over twelve millions of dollars, and which ought to bring four times the amount of the judgment debt, should not pass into the hands of speculators at a price grossly inadequate to its real value.

If it is necessary to sell the Road, let the Legislature appoint Commissioners, as recommended by the Governor, to conduct the sale, and get the best price they can for the property. The Commissioners should be men of such unimpeachable integrity and high character that their names will command the most implicit confidence of the whole people of the State.

We are clearly of the opinion from the circumstances which have come to light in regard to the suit of Clews, Sibley, and others, that the decree ordering the sale should be reviewed and set aside if the badges of fraud to which the Governor alludes can be shown to exist.

If the Road must be sold, let it be sold for the benefit of the State, and not of the Southern Security Company. Let it be sold for the best price it can bring, and not sacrificed to satisfy the fraudulent claims of speculators and land sharks.

In this matter, we look only to the interests of North Carolina. While we are as anxious as any one to extend Railroad facilities to the West, and will go as far as the farthest in advocacy of any practicable scheme for that purpose, we believe the people of that section, when they come to understand the matter fully, will sustain our position on the subject.

We repeat, if the sale of the Road is inevitable, let the sale be made by Commissioners appointed by the Legislature, who will protect the interest of the State against the frauds and speculations of private individuals as well as foreign corporations.

GEORGIA ABOLISHES ALL USURY LAWS!

In a telegram from Atlanta, Georgia, published in our columns yesterday, occurs the following language: "All Usury laws have been repealed."

The Legislature of Georgia, now in session, is composed of as good elements as that of any Southern State.

The Conservatives have more than a three-fourths majority in both branches of the Legislature, and the tax-payers are better represented because no man is allowed to vote there until he shows his poll-tax receipt.

Georgia is becoming more prosperous than any State in the South. Her valuable cotton factories and other manufacturing interests are gradually building up her cities and villages, and her wholesome laws are paying the way for rapid advancement in all the peaceful and useful arts. As a State, Georgia has a bright future before her, and we hail with pleasure her increasing prosperity.

PERSON COUNTY AND HER MEMBERS.

The last Milton Chronicle contains the following complimentary remarks on "Person county and her members."

The compliments to Mr. McGehee and Col. Cunningham are well deserved and Person county can well afford to be proud of the high stand taken by her able Representatives in both branches of the General Assembly.

"We congratulate the good people of Person upon the wisdom and sagacity they displayed in the selection of their Representatives in the General Assembly. In both houses their members hold enviable positions. The liberality, the tact, the talent and the culture of Montford McGehee have made a decided impression on both sides of the House. Mr. McGehee has risen to the elevation of true statesmanship. Putting beneath his feet the petty personal animosities and grievances of the partisan, he strives to restore the era of good feeling and to enlist all parties and parties in the noble work of regenerating and reconstructing the State.

If Mr. McGehee will consent to forego the enjoyments of home and the pursuits of letters, we predict for him a brilliant reputation in the State. In the Senate, our old friend Colonel Cunningham seems to be on his "native heath" again, or to change the figure for one less flowery, he has, like an "old stager," instinctively stepped into his old place—"The off side at the wheel," and stretches himself out for a level pull; and now if the traces don't break, the old stage—the State—will have to just "get up and get" out of the slough of despond.

Col. Cunningham lays no claims to the graces of the orator; but for seeing the strong points of his subject, and for presenting them clearly and tersely, we doubt if he has a superior in either House. He hits out squarely from the shoulder, sledge-hammer blows."

(From the Richmond Whig, Feb. 12.)

Portrait of George Washington, by Gilbert Stuart.

The State Library yesterday received what it had long lacked, a good portrait of the Father of His Country. And this portrait is the more valuable from the fact that it was undoubtedly painted by Gilbert Stuart himself. It is said that Stuart painted but three portraits of Washington from sittings, and that he destroyed one of these. Of the remaining two, one is in the Athenaeum at Boston, and the other, originally painted for the Marquis of Lansdown, is in some European gallery. But Stuart made several faithful copies of these, and one of the copies made by Stuart was yesterday deposited in the State Library. Stuart gave this portrait at his death to his pupil, the painter Dunlap. It was then incomplete as to the details of the costume only, and these Dunlap skillfully filled in. But the face, the likeness itself, is the untouched work of Gilbert Stuart. Mr. Dunlap presented the portrait to Mr. Thomas Williamson, formerly cashier of the Bank of Virginia, at Norfolk, and a member of his family. Mrs. G. G. Williamson, of this city, has placed it for preservation in the library.

It is a fine painting, and those who are competent to decide pronounce it an excellent likeness of George Washington. It has suffered some from the accidents of time, and needs cleaning, retouching and reframing, and we trust that it will be so promptly.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

FOR RENT.

A gentleman living a short distance from this city has a handsomely furnished house, which he is ready to rent on reasonable terms, to a single gentleman, with or without board, or to a gentleman and lady without board. In the latter case a small and conveniently arranged room will also be rented for cooking purposes, &c. This is an excellent opportunity to locate pleasantly. For information apply at this office. WHAT A FEW PEOPLE WHO KNOW SAY OF

THE ADJUSTABLE SPRING BED BOTTOM.

YARBOUGH HOUSE, Raleigh, N. C., Jan. 22nd, 1875.

I feel no hesitancy in recommending BARKLEY'S PATENT ADJUSTABLE SPRING BED BOTTOM, as I have used one for some time, and I feel satisfied that they only need to be tried to be appreciated. We have ordered one for our home, and have thoroughly tested one on our own bed. Durability, simplicity, comfort and cheapness as well as economy are merits all combined in this Spring Bed. G. W. BLACKWELL, Proprietor.

THE ADJUSTABLE SPRING BED.

Raleigh, N. C., January 8th, 1875.

This certifies that after a fair trial of the Adjustable Spring Bed (Barkley's Patent) I unhesitatingly pronounce them most comfortable and pleasant, I moreover regard them as very durable. I feel satisfied that after having once used them no one would be willing to be without them.

No new cases of small pox at Nashville. So says the Rocky Mount Mail.

The Spring term of both Wilson and Warren Courts commences on the 24th inst.

John J. McDaniel, a worthy citizen of Jones, died in that county on the 8th inst.

The Milton Chronicle says that "Hell's Hall-Acre" was recently sold in that place.

J. J. Johnson, aged 90, died at his residence in Edgecombe county, on the 9th inst.

Corn is plentiful in Newbern at 90 cents. See our Newbern advertisements for dealers in grain.

Wilmington is discussing work. Raleigh ought to open her eyes to the importance of the same subject.

Cars run over the railroad from Greensboro to Kernersville, and by the middle of March will run to Salem.

Books have been opened at Wilson for subscription to the capital stock of the Wilson & Tar River Railroad.

12,000 barrels of rosin sold in Wilmington Thursday, and James, of the Journal, says it was a poor day for rosin at that.

The Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Railroad is to be laid with new iron from its entire length. So says the Journal.

The foreman of the Kinston Gazette office has had his thumb broken by a blow from a pair of tongs in the hands of his sweetheart.

Locals are scarce in the Kinston section. Bro. Wilson, of the Gazette, is compelled to record the death of a mule as a news item.

President Grant will include Wilmington and Raleigh in his proposed trip through the South, which will take place during the month of April.

The Milton Chronicle says that the farmers in that section speak dependently of the wheat crop. They say that much of it is frozen out.

The Rocky Mount Mail wants Ex-Gov. H. T. Clark, of Edgecombe, to write the history of North Carolina's part in the war. A good suggestion.

The Order of the Friends of Temperance flourishes in Kinston. Thirteen members were induced to "touch not, taste not and handle not" at one meeting.

A little child three years old suddenly disappeared in Edgecombe county. Its mother, Harriet Pullen, is much distressed, and a reward is offered for its recovery.

It is said that Senator Thurman, of Ohio, was born in Edenton, in this State. While he was quite young his parents emigrated from North Carolina and settled in the West.

John M. Reeves, of Bladen, was severely injured by a Steam Tug Schooner and Raft collision at Wilmington on Thursday. Mr. Reeves was on the Raft and narrowly escaped with his life. So says the Star.

The Wilmington Star announces that the "immortal philosopher" J. N. C. will lecture in Wilmington on the 15th of Goldsboro the 15th, and to the members of the Legislature in this city on the 15th or 16th of March.

Says the Wilmington Journal: "Hon. R. R. Bridges is now in New York where he will purchase 12 new engines, 6 for the Wilmington, Columbia and Augusta Railroad and 7 for the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad."

A little negro girl was burned to death in Edgecombe county, on the night of the 7th inst. A little brother pushed her into the fire while playing, and before she could be rescued she was badly burned that she died in a few hours.

The premises of James Proctor, living on the plantation of Col. E. C. Yellow, near Greenville, was invaded by a band of thieves on Sunday night last, who carried away 2000 pounds of pork, forty pounds of sugar and one barrel of pickled meat.

From passengers on the North Carolina Railroad, we learn that Wm. Robinson, a prominent citizen of Goldsboro, on yesterday at that place, met with a severe accident by having his leg broken in three places by a fall. We could not obtain full particulars.

Says the Wilson Plaindealer: Mr. James Joyner, of Marlboro, Pitt county, has a seven acre lot of clover which was sown the 28th of last February, from which two crops were taken last year, now bright and green with the promise of an abundant crop this year.

The editor of the Kinston Gazette had his umbrella stolen from him during the prevalence of a rain, and while he was out in it. Since that time Rev. J. C. Hiden, of Wilmington, delivered a temperance lecture in that place by request. We rather think the field was a good one.

The cars on the Air Line Railroad will run from Charlotte to Greenville by the 15th of next month. The bridge over the Saluda River on the west side of Greenville, has been completed, and construction trains now run to George's Creek, in Pickens county, and track-laying is going rapidly forward.

A meeting of the friends of the Fair of the Carolinas was held in Charlotte on Thursday, and steps taken to put the Society on a firm footing. Dr. Columbus Mills, of Cabarrus, was elected President, with an efficient corps of other officers, and measures taken to increase the stock of the Company. The Observer is pleased to know that the affairs of the Society now wear a more cheerful aspect than formerly. Success to it.

The Shah of Persia has notified the governments at St. Petersburg, Vienna, Berlin and Paris that he expects to enter on his travels during the present year. Such a thing being exceedingly uncommon, the Shah may count confidently upon being the lion of the season. He will travel right royally. A small party of some ten millions of dollars has been made up to defray his expenses. He will come, then, in gorgeous splendor, with a retinue glittering in barbaric gold and gem. His chief minister and secretaries, his mollahs, his cup bearers, pipe bearers and chamberlains, his dancing women and his singing women, his guards and his military household, will make a display that has not been seen in Europe for ages. His acceptance of an invitation to a ball will be the occasion of a scramble for tickets that will throw the favorite operas of Patti into the shade, and render the Sultan envious. Once in the rooms he will be observed of all observers, for the jewels of Persia are said to be the finest in the world, and the national dress one of the most picturesque and striking of Oriental costumes.

It seems to be a well settled conclusion among those most intimate with the President, and most familiar with the diplomatic policy, if such there be, of the administration, that after the fourth of March the President will make an almost complete change in the list of foreign ministers. Mr. Bancroft, at Berlin, and Mr. Jay, at Vienna, are, it is said, to be the first ones recalled. Mr. Schenck, it is believed, will retire at his own suggestion. A sweeping change is contemplated in the South American republics, it being the intention to send able men to those stations, who will be expected to be more successful in turning the rich trade of those republics to our shores than those heretofore representing the United States. It is also said that General Sickles, though regarded as the ablest in diplomacy in the foreign service, will be recalled preliminarily to a more vigorous course toward Cuba.

So great has been the oppression of the negro and carpet-bag government in Louisiana and New Orleans, that the debt of that city is one-fourth of its assessed property. Since 1867 the real estate of the city has declined more than thirty per cent. in value.

A female clerk in a candy store in Kansas City heard she had fallen heir to a fortune in England, and immediately refused to attend customers, but perched herself on the counter and chewed gum drops the rest of the day.

THE PEOPLE'S STAMP OF VALUE. The Government Incentive, which induces the sale of PLANTAIN PILLS, is not the only stamp affixed to that famous Vegetable Tonic. Dr. Beckwith's Anti-Dyspeptic Pills. The Hon. James A. Caldwell, late Governor of North Carolina, made the following statement with regard to Beckwith's PILLS:

"Dr. Beckwith's Anti-Dyspeptic Pills have been used in my family-which is a large family-and have been found to be of great benefit to me and my family."

A number of my friends who have been afflicted with dyspepsia and other disorders of the stomach, have been cured by the use of these pills. I have used them for several years, justifying me in declaring that he would give no assurances of facts of his own experience, and that he would not be content, in which the public might not safely rely.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

NOON DISPATCHES.

Spanish News from a Spanish Source.
MADRID, Feb. 15.—The disturbances in Malaga have been suppressed.

The snow interrupts railroads in the neighborhood of Madrid.

Gen. Pavía has been appointed to the chief command of the troops in Catalonia.

Senor Orenze will probably be appointed Ambassador at Paris; Abazuga at London, and Fiol at Brussels.

A decree is expected suppressing titles and decorations.

It is rumored that the Royal Palace here will be converted into a Museum and Academy of Art.

Revolutionary juntas, which have long existed in secret in the Provinces, are dissolving.

The Spanish banks have offered financial aid to the ministry.

The Gaceta reports the defeat of several Carlist bands in Catalonia.

Snow in Biscay and Navarre prevents operation by the Spanish troops against the Carlists in those provinces.

Senor Salmeron, Minister of Justice, will present a bill to the National Assembly to-day providing for the punishment of the suppression of the royal guard.

It is probable that the Council of State will be suppressed.

It is asserted that the governments of the United States of America, France, England, Belgium and Switzerland will soon recognize the Republic of Spain.

The establishment of the Republic was celebrated in the city last night by a general illumination. The streets were crowded with people, but no disorder.

Dispatches from the provinces report that tranquility continues everywhere, excepting in the districts disturbed by Carlists.

It is said, however, that the army is opposed to a republic and favors a monarchy, but is divided in its choice for a ruler between the Duke of Montpensier and Queen Isabella.

Don Carlos entered Spain on Thursday last. The Carlists are working vigorously to advance the interests of their leader.

Saragossa is practically blockaded by the insurgents. The insurrectionists have cut the railway between the city and the north at Pancorvo, a town in the mountain defiles in the province of Drago.

Spanish News via Paris.

PARIS, Feb. 15.—Several days mail are due from Madrid.

The reported meeting at the residence of Duke D'Aumale to favor Montpensier is false.

Specials from Madrid to Paris journals report that Figueras intends to disband the regular army and rely solely on the civic guard for the preservation of order.

The Gazette de France says, there is a party in the Portuguese army which is conspiring in favor of a Republic and an Iberian Union.

The Paris Le Univers, a legitimist organ, contradicts the report that reconciliation had been effected between the two branches of the house of Bourbon. It asserts that nothing has been done towards an union.

Horace Greeley's Daughters—Stokes' Chance.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Horace Greeley's estate is about one hundred and twenty thousand dollars. It is said that Saml. Sinclair owes the estate at least eighty thousand dollars. There are about one hundred thousand dollars of bad debts, and worthless securities. The appraisers say C. Vanderbilt owes the estate fifty thousand dollars of borrowed money.

Commodore Vanderbilt has given each of Greeley's daughters five thousand dollars, saying they can have what money they need at any time.

The only chance for Stokes is a delay until a full bench tests the constitutionality of the jury law of 1872.

Portugal Affairs.

LISBON, Feb. 15.—In the Chamber of Deputies to-day a debate arose on the recent events in Spain. Silva said there was reason to expect that the changes in the neighboring country would have an echo in Portugal. He urged all to support the Constitution. The Prime Minister replied that he saw no danger to the country.

Amadeus will leave Lisbon for home as soon as the Queen can bear the fatigue of travel.

The idea of an union of Spain and Portugal is gaining strength.

The Mormons.

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 15.—A large number of Saints are leaving for the new settlement in Arizona. It is said they regard their call with ill-concealed dissatisfaction, and are half inclined to rebel, but church orders are imperative and unalterable.

Parliament.

LONDON, Feb. 15.—After a long debate in the House of Commons upon the submission of all treaties to Parliament before ratification, which Gladstone opposed, the subject was dropped without a vote.

Recognition of the Spanish Republic.

BERLIN, Feb. 15.—The Spanish Minister had a conference of two hours with Prince Bismarck to-day. The immediate recognition of the Spanish Republic by Germany is expected.

Fatal Explosion.

RICHMOND, VA., Feb. 15.—The switch engine, "Fury," exploded at the Danville depot, killing fireman Rollins.

MIDNIGHT DISPATCHES.

Steamboat Disaster.

NEW ORLEANS, Feb. 15.—The steamboat Henry A. Jones, from Houston, for Galveston with a cargo of four hundred and forty-two bales of cotton was destroyed by fire this morning in Galveston Bay. Twenty-one lives were lost; among them Capt. J. J. Price, first Clerk, and James B. Hogan, second Clerk. Both are well-known steamboat men.

Sentenced to Death.

CHICAGO, Feb. 15.—Omer, convicted of the murder of Mrs. Matthews, has been sentenced to death.

Congratulations to the President and Vice-President Elect.

WASHINGTON, February 15.—The joint committee on the part of the two Houses of Congress, appointed to officially notify the President of the result of the counting of the votes of the Electoral College of the several States of the Union, Wednesday last, called at the Executive Mansion this morning, and presented to the President the following letter:

WASHINGTON, February 15, 1878.

SIR: We have been appointed a committee by the Senate and House of Representatives to notify you that on Wednesday, the 12th inst., the Vice-President-elect, acting as President of the Senate, in the presence of both Houses, opened and counted the votes of the Electoral College of the several States for President and Vice-President of the United States. By the count it was ascertained, and declared, that you were duly elected President for the term of four years from and after the 4th day of March, A. D. 1878. In performing this official duty we take occasion to tender to you our hearty congratulations for the eminent civil and military service you have had the good fortune to render to the United States, and to express our confident hope that your administration, during the term for which you are now elected, will promote the peace, honor and prosperity of all the people of the United States, without respect to sectional or party division.

With great respect, yours, &c., JOHN SHEPHERD.

On the part of the Senate, H. L. DAWES.

On the part of the House of Representatives, JAMES B. BECK.

To His Excellency, President of the United States.

The President replied as follows: "I sincerely appreciate this renewed evidence of satisfaction with my administration. When I was elected four years ago there was less regard for party lines. In the last campaign political differences and personal hostilities more clearly defined the lines of party, but notwithstanding this, I shall continue to endeavor to make my administration of the government meet not only the approval of the great party which elected me, but all the people of the United States."

The committee then called on Hon. Henry Wilson and read to him a letter, informing him of his election as Vice-President of the United States, and concluded as follows: "We take this occasion, while performing this official duty, to congratulate you on the high honor conferred upon you by the people of the United States. You have long been identified with the legislative branch of the government, during a period of unexampled difficulty. We are sure we state the universal feeling of the respective Houses, to which we belong, when we assure you of their sincere respect and hearty good will."

Mr. Wilson thanked the committee for their congratulations and for their assurance of the good will of both Houses of Congress. He gratefully accepted the high trust confided by the people of the United States, and said he should strive to discharge the duties of the position assigned him with zeal, fidelity and impartiality. He expressed, too, the hope that the coming four years would be consecrated, by the earnestness with power, to the peace, unity and development of the country, and that those in every department of the government might retire at the close of their official career with the consciousness of duties well done, and with the approval of their countrymen.

Spanish Reforms.

MADRID, Feb. 15.—Among the measures contemplated by the Ministers are the separation of the church and state, and the appointment of judges for life. Bills providing for some will soon be presented to the National Assembly.

Senor Costellier, Minister of Foreign Affairs, in a dispatch acknowledging the receipt of congratulations of South Americans in Paris, says to them that they will have to withdraw their support from Cuban separatists now that the Antilles is under a republican form of government. He also says it has been decided to await the arrival of Deputies to the National Assembly from Cuba before arrangements for reform in that island are made. The government intends to suppress the offices of Ministers of Colonies, of Justice and of Public Works, and to abolish the system of retiring on pensions for officials over sixty years of age.

The appointment of General Pavia to the chief command of the troops in Catalonia is denied. It is said, however, he will be appointed to another command of great prominence. The "Official Gazette" will soon publish a decree for the re-organization of the Spanish militia.

Spanish Affairs.

MADRID, Feb. 15.—The reported raising of Alphonse in the southwestern Spain fails. Dispatches have been received here from New York, stating that some of the journals of that city publish articles assuming that the Republic is established.

This view is emphatically declared, in ministerial circles, to be erroneous. Notwithstanding other very important matters pressing upon their Government, their attention has already been given to the subject of maintaining the authority of Spain in Cuba.

In the Assembly to-day, bills were read granting amnesty to persons charged with complicity in the recent Republican demonstration, and declaring that justice shall hereafter be administered in the name of the people.

Senor Echegaray, Minister of Finance, declared that the financial obligations of Spain shall be respected. The declaration was greeted with cheers. He said the republican government was interested in maintaining the credit of the nation. "Respect for right" will be the motto of the republic.

Montemayor has resigned his place as Spanish Minister to Italy. Missionaire will probably succeed him.

Representatives to England and Portugal remain at their posts.

A Chance For Stokes.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—The Bank Statement shows a loss of Reserves of $4 million.

Special shipments to day three-fifths of a million.

Judge Davis has granted a stay of the proceedings in the Stokes case.

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15.—SENATE.—The Conference report on the Diplomatic Bill was concurred in.

The Rule limiting debate on amendments to five minutes and excluding amendments not germane was adopted.

Col. from the Committee on Appropriations, reported the post office appropriations with amendments, among which are the following: Prohibiting the transmission by mail of any free matter whatever, not excepting newspapers and exchange; requiring all persons receiving their mails by carriers to provide proper boxes or other receptacles at their dwellings or office in order to facilitate rapid delivery; authorizing the employment of one additional special agent to detect persons engaged in sending obscene matter through the mails; striking out the provision requiring railroad companies to make contracts for postal car service as a condition of receiving increased pay, and providing that additional pay may be allowed for daily postal car service at rates not exceeding $35 per mile per annum for cars forty feet in length, $30 for forty-five feet cars, $40 for fifty feet cars and $50 per mile per annum for cars from fifty-five to sixty feet long. The length of the cars for any particular service to be determined by the Postmaster General.

Sen. Mr. Wilbur, of Vermont, asked unanimous consent to offer a joint resolution congratulating the people of Spain upon the establishment of a Republican Government in that country.

Mr. Banks, of Massachusetts: I object to that. I object to that. It is a proposition to approve of slavery in the colonies of Spain.

The bill removing disabilities of Wm. Smith, of Fauquier county, Va., passed.

The Geneva Distribution Bill passed with interest from date of award.

Virginia Bondholders in Council.

RICHMOND, VA., Feb. 15.—Conference of State bond-holders with the Joint Committee of the Legislature assembled in the Senate Chamber this afternoon. Nearly two million of dollars were represented. After a full and free interchange of the views, the conference adjourned till Tuesday evening, at which time the Joint Committee were requested to present some plan for the adjustment of the public debt.

Bank Statement.

NEW YORK, Feb. 15.—Loans decreased two and three eighths of a million; specie decreased one-half of a million; legal tenders decreased two and three eighths of a million; deposits decreased five and five eighths of a million.
